Dear Sir, I rec'd. a note a few days ago from Mr Lekony regretting his delay in sending the sketch for the Catalogue owing to various jury duties &c. But assure me that he would send it to me at once. I wrote requesting him to forward it direct to you, as I was absent, but the drawing had already been sent to my studio & was forwarded here. I therefore posted it to you at once & trust before now you have rec'd. it safely. Immediately are over back from their visit home.

after sending it I rec'd your favor in reply to mine about Delafield sketch. which I am sorry to say is unable to contribute. I presume Mr. Penn sent you his sketch long ago, as promised.
London is just now full of art exhibits and I am glad to see announced for opening in a few days an exhibition of Water Colors by American artists. & anticipate much pleasure in seeing it as it is so many years since I have seen any. I come over to meet Mrs. Anna & my daughter whom you saw.

I send you today a copy of a London paper. which contains a very favourable notice of my Soni Falon Picture the "Water Carrier"

"Le Journal Amusant" of Paris May 5th contains a very eulogistic notice of of the other Falon picture the "Atelieure" You will be gratified, perhaps, to learn that the Falon Medal has been awarded to the young artist Charles Spagnu Pearce.

I take great pleasure in bringing to your notice a picture which I am sure you and your associates in the Concord Art Committee will be glad to know of. It is called "A Summer Evening on the Thawes", and was painted by our distinguished countryman W. J. Hennedy, and exhibited

It is a large picture, to hang in an audience room, & is especially adapted to gallery exhibition.

I discovered, accidentally, that it could be secured for exhibition here, and making no objection that you & our many art lovers, should be able to see it. I secured control of it, and can have it forwarded to the gallery as soon as you give me the proper commands. Dr. Holliday has already expressed a desire to see it.
The picture is mounted, and when well at the Royal Academy in 78, when it received much praise from the very best critics, among them Sir Frederick Leighton, Millais, Cruikshank, & many others.

It was engraved in "Art", & was highly spoken of in that review. It is a purely English subject, & has also the advantage of being a veritable reproduction, having been painted from the scene of Hogarth's play.
The foreground is full of esquisse characteristic figures, & all done in Hogarth's best style.

be no expense or trouble. Patron, & the Gallery association, beyond that of receiving and hanging it. I feel no hesitation in asking & than it brought to the Corcoran, but rather rejoice that it has come in my direct way & being an esquisiti. work of art to your notice, which might otherwise have escaped it. I feel my own, that you for me, even though you do not fancy the subject, will feel great satisfaction in seeing the picture, & I will be glad to receive your directions regarding it, with kindest greetings. Sincerely yours. Oliver Peale Seward.

Wm. MacLeod, Esq.
Curator Corcoran Gallery

Dear Sir,

From your letter of May 14th., and a postal card received from Mr. Kochler before, I concluded that your Trustees had virtually decided that ~~the~~ it was not practicable for the Corcoran Gallery to co-operate with us in the joint exhibition we had proposed.

Mr. Kohler certainly considered the matter settled; so, having finished his other business, he left Washington.

I could not tell you where he was when your inquiry of 23d. inst. was received; but he has since written one from his home, "Beech Glen Avenue, Roxbury, Boston, Mass."

The project of a joint exhibition could not be carried out this year, even if the details were all arranged now; so, if your Trustees should desire to consider the matter further, there is time enough, and we would be glad to hear from them.

It is of vital importance to the advancement of art in this country that some order should be introduced into the growing chaos of exhibitions.

As it stands, each good art ist, can only be reprepresented before a limited public, and our community — not even New York — can have the advantage of a comprehensive view of the current work of the good artists.

Yours truly

Wm. Collier George.
